

Wesley House

The Methodist College in Cambridge since 1921

Resourcing Wesleyan scholarship for the transformation of church and world

METHODIST STUDIES SEMINAR

Friday 10th May 2019

From 9.30	Refreshments in the Dining Room
10.00	Welcome & Opening Session Andrew Stobart Conferring and Curating: a Wesleyan/Methodist approach to research
	In the Dining Room	In the Teaching Room
10.45	Clive Norris The Ghosts of Leverton: early Methodists and the spirit world	Charles Lungu Reclaiming African Cultural Values for Inter-religious Dialogue in Zambia
11.20	Sarah Middleton An exercise in visual theology - drawing together learning from a recent online cohort	Paul Kerry George Bancroft's View of Methodists in his History of the United States from the Discovery of the American Continent
11.55	Tim Wooley 'Men Devoted Solely to the Work': Itinerant Ministry Amongst the Wesleyan Protestant Methodists.	Douglas Ncebere Paul and Hybridity
12.30	Hankyu Kim Pragmatic and faithful mission: a conceptual framework of Christian mission in religiously pluralistic context	John Hardy Griffith Jones
13.00-13.40	Lunch in the Dining Room
13.45	Alice Muthoni Mwila Changing Religious Affiliations in Kenya	Deborah Caulk Agnes Collinson Bulmer, Part 3: "Look on the bright side of life"
14.20	Jason Byassee God in Particular	Andrew Pickering Storming a Strong Citadel of Exclusiveness and Prejudice.' William Harris Rule and the Struggle for Religious Liberty in the British Army
14.55	Liz Kent tbc	Julian Pursehouse 'Wesley and Happiness - Unlikely Alliance or Creative Encounter!'
15.30	Plenary
16.00	Depart	