📍 1133 161st St. SW Unit B.
Lynnwood, WA

My passion is to see God's kingdom become a greater reality on earth through helping to equip church planters and pastors who will embody a grounded spirituality, missional theology, and movement ecclesiology with contextual intelligence. I've given my life to planting churches that value tight-knit community, life-forming discipleship, locally-rooted presence, and boundary-crossing mission.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

National Director, The V3 Church Planting Movement

2013 - Present

As the national director, I oversee our staff, recruit church planters, market-place planters, and re-missioning pastors. I have developed practical tool-based curriculum for training leaders through eight-month cohorts. We assess and support planters through developing experienced coaches and the giving of grants. We have developed the foundations for a worldwide movement of churches, with indigenous leaders in Europe, Africa, and Asia. We have trained over 600 leaders in the first ten years, with the goal to train 600 more in the next five years. We are developing a decentralized ecosystem to help strengthen the movement. I co-founded the annual Praxis Gathering, for missional leaders.

Co-founder and Board Member, Missio Alliance

2012 - Present

As co-founder, I organized our first national gathering with the help of J.R. Rozko. We had over 700 leaders come from around the country. We equipped pastors and leaders to develop a robust missional theology and praxis in regard to living out God's mission. As a board member, I support the mission and vision of Missio Alliance as we move into the future.

Co-founder and West Coast Director, Ecclesia Network

2007 - 2012

As co-founder and West Coast director, I helped recruit, assess, train, and coach church planters, as well as network with other networks and denominations. I've organized regional and citywide gatherings, as well as cultivated peer learning on the West Coast. I served as the national director of leadership and congregational formation in my final year with Ecclesia. We started four churches and at my departure had 30 churches representing 4,000 people, with a growth rate of about 30% a year.

Co-founder and Director, Solis Foundation

2007 - 2012

We equipped and resourced people living in extreme poverty to create sustainable businesses in the Turkana region of Kenya. My primary responsibilities were recruiting and building team, resource development (fundraising), and coaching mentors and leaders of the organization. We helped start 10 new businesses a year.

Co-founder, Pastor, Church Planting Coach, Kairos Los Angeles

2002 - 2012

I recruited 48 people to move from Blacksburg, VA to Los Angeles, CA to plant a network of neighborhood churches. We planted three churches in LA, one in Hollywood, West LA, and one near downtown (USC). We also helped with a plant in the Antelope Valley. I developed local polycentric leadership; they are now self-governing and upon my exit were a part of the Ecclesia Network.

National Leadership Team, Great Commission Ministries 1998 - 2005

I served on the National Leadership team for Great Commission Ministries, now Reliant Mission. I equipped hundreds of pastors and staff. I served as an organizer and speaker at the national gathering for students each year, which typically had over 2,000 in attendance. In 2004 my role changed, and I became part of the governing board of Reliant.

Founding Pastor, New Life Christian Fellowship 1989 - 2002

I was the founder and lead pastor for [NLCF]. Some of my responsibilities included visionizing, preaching, team building, equipping leaders, discipleship, leading summer mission trips, strategic planning, connecting with university officials, counseling, and evangelism. We started with 24 people and grew to 1,200 during my time with [NLCF], with over 500 new Christians and over 40 people coming into full time ministry through reliant mission. [NLCF] has continued to plant eight churches.
